Experience days and nights in the hallowed colonial San Antonio Abad seminary, built more than 300 years ago and which, today, is the Hotel Monasterio. While providing you with the comforts and quality of a modern five-star hotel, it is the only museum hotel where you can experience a unique encounter with Cuzco's Inca and Spanish traditions.

The decoration and furnishings combine the best of modern and traditional Spanish colonial style, many of them with charming views of the city or the colorful rooftops of Cuzco. The original architecture and design of the Monasterio has not been significantly altered, and thus the rooms do reflect their origins as a home for Jesuit seminarians. There are no two rooms alike and they all vary in size and format.
